

Dear colleagues,

first off all, thank you very much for your help in distributing the information on our Erasmus Mundus Seminar in Bangkok and the funding opportunities in the realm of the Euro-Asia.net project.

This is to remind you that the deadline for the second Call for Proposals for financial support of the participation in the upcoming Erasmus Mundus contact seminar in Bangkok, thailand (October 27-28, 2011) organized by the ASEMUNDUS project, is appraoching (September 1).

This Call for Proposals is open to ALL RECOGNIZED EUROPEAN HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS and we would very much appreciate your help in distributing this reminder among your universities. For this matter - and for further information - please see the message below!

Should you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch with me!

Again, thanks a lot for your help!

With best regards,

Martin Schifferings

Erasmus Mundus contact seminar in Bangkok, Thailand - October 27-28, 2011**

On October 27-28, 2011, in the realm of the OCSC international education fair (October 29-30, 2011) an Erasmus Mundus seminar will take place in Bangkok, Thailand. The seminar will present the Erasmus

Mundus programme, good practice examples from ongoing Erasmus Mundus projects and discuss common issues of higher education cooperation. The seminar will gather European and Thai (in limited numbers also Vietnamese/Malaysian/Singaporean) higher education representatives. The seminar will provide the opportunity for project presentation and partner search. The seminar programme can be found here shortly: <http://www.asem-education-secretariat.org/asemundus>

Funding opportunity for participation - APPLY NOW!

(<http://www.asem-education-secretariat.org/en/15852/index.html>)

European higher education representatives interested in a participation can receive financial support to cover travel and subsistence costs.

The EU-funded networking project "Euro-Asia.net" will financially support up to 10 selected European higher education representatives to participate in the Erasmus Mundus networking seminar in Bangkok with the aim to initiate contacts, search for appropriate Thai (or Vietnamese/Malaysian/Singaporean) partners and possibly create a project consortium for applying under the Erasmus Mundus programme. A market place, organised at these seminars will allow participants to present project ideas and match with appropriate partners.

European university representatives can apply for a cofunding of travel and subsistence costs. The maximum total amount eligible for funding is

EUR 2.500 and it is important to note that 20% of the total amount have to be funded by the applicant's own resources.

Applications need to present a convincing project plan on how to profit from participation in the seminar and initiate new European-Asian cooperation in the framework of the Erasmus Mundus programme.

THE SUBMISSION DEADLINE FOR PROJECT PROPOSALS UNDER THIS CALL IS
