

2014 Summer School

Drought Hazard and Management: Challenges in a Changing World

16-20 June 2014, Hermoupolis, GR

Please print or type.

Last name(s) First name(s) Middle name(s)

Institute or Organisation

First address line

Last address line

City Post code/zip Country

Email Daytime phone (include country code)

In addition to attaching your Curriculum Vitae (Europass Form) please complete the following boxes:

A. Motivation to participate in the Summer School:
(Please write briefly your reasons for wanting to participate in the Summer School, maximum 200 words)

B. What area of research are you currently working in?

(Please write maximum 200 words describing your research area)

C. Please provide the provisional title of your short presentation on drought or related issues, indicating (if possible) the research area: hazard, impacts, management

D. Are you requesting travel support?

No Yes

If Yes please state:

The country you are travelling from:

The reason for requesting travel support:

.....

Important note: Funding is limited; every effort should be made by the applicants to secure support (at least part of it) for their travel expenses

Applications should be sent via e-mail, no later than 28/2/2014 to ekamp@chemeng.ntua.gr

Applicants will be notified of acceptance or otherwise by 31/3/2014

School of Chemical Engineering
National Technical University of Athens, Greece
<http://environ.chemeng.ntua.gr/en/>